

My name is Yvette McGuire and I am the Manager and Center Coordinator for Mystical World, Bookstore and Enlightenment Center, in Lyndhurst, NJ.

I have been working with tuning forks for several years and am a Certified Teacher and premier practitioner.

SomaEnergetics (Soma meaning "body" in the original Greek) is a powerful series of Sound Therapies that utilize tuning forks tuned to the frequencies of the Ancient Solfeggio. This exciting sound modality is one way to access our subtle energy bodies and free blocked energy, creating openings for personal transformation and healing!

I will be holding a free lecture to introduce you to this innovative modality and some of the science behind it. Join me as we explore "The Healing Power of Sound" at our Open House on Saturday, March 6, 2010 at 1:00p.
